

Department of Earth and Environment
Minor in Geology

Our 17-credit Minor in Geology is a five-course sequence that gives students a basic understanding of geology.

Complete four of the following courses:

Course Prefix	Course Title	Credits Hours
GLY 1010 & GLY 1010L  or GLY 3039 & GLY 3039L	Physical Geology & Physical Geology Lab  or Environmental Geology & Environmental Geology Lab	3,1
GLY 1100 & GLY 1100L  or GLY 1101 & GLY 1101L	Historical Geology & Historical Geology Lab  or The History of Life & The History of Life Lab (1)	3, 1
GLY 3202 &  GLY 3202L	Earth Materials & Earth Materials Lab	3,1
Additional 5 credit hours of approved Earth Sciences/Geoscience courses at 3000/4000 level (exc. GLY 3039)		5

All courses must be completed with a grade of “C” or better

For more information, consult the Undergraduate Catalog. Click the following for a list of CASE minors, CASE undergraduate degrees and certificates, and course descriptions.