

Camper Code of Conduct

Parents/guardians and campers please review the following Code of Conduct, sign, and return.

Florida International University is dedicated to providing outstanding summer camps for youth. Campers are expected to behave appropriately and promote a safe, fun and healthy environment through productive participation. The staff will use a positive approach to discipline and use parental support to resolve behavior issues and to encourage positive behavior. Participants who remain disruptive after consultation with the parents may be dismissed from the program. Please review the Code of Conduct below with your child so that he/she fully understands the expectations.

Missed days of camp are not refunded or transferable. No tuition refund will be made in connection with cancellations, late arrivals, early withdrawals, or camp dismissals due to inappropriate conduct. No compensation will be made for missed days due to natural disasters or other unforeseen events.

As a camper, I will:

- Show respect to other participants, and treat them as I would like to be treated.
- Show respect to staff and cooperate fully with their instructions.
- Know and follow the rules of the camp.
- Respect the rights and beliefs of others and treat others with courtesy and consideration. I understand that unwelcome teasing or other unkind behaviors are not allowed.
- Communicate in an appropriate manner, which means I will not use foul language or gestures, harsh words or tone of voice.
- Be fully responsible for my actions and understand that irresponsible behavior will result in disciplinary action.
