

Chapter Display Competition

Overview

In the Chapter Display competition, high school chapters participating in the FEA Regional Conference at FIU will showcase their chapter's mission, activities, and dedication to education through creative displays.

Each chapter is invited to craft a compelling exhibit that not only highlights their unique initiatives but also aligns with this year's conference theme, "Lights, Camera, Teach!"

Entries will be prominently featured during breakout sessions on conference day. Chapter members do not need to stand beside their creations during the exhibition.

Competition Guidelines

- A. Entries must be the work of the chapter's student members.
- B. Displays must be freestanding and mounted on cardboard or foam board.
- C. Displays can extend beyond the cardboard or foam board area but must be configured to occupy a 30" square table and the space above it.
- D. Displays must identify the school and/or chapter name.
- E. Electricity is not provided. The use of laptops, projectors, audio players, and external or additional lighting is prohibited.
- F. Display should demonstrate the mission and activities of the FEA chapter.
- G. Scrapbooks may be included with the chapter displays. (THIS IS OPTIONAL AND WILL NOT AFFECT YOUR SCORE.)
- H. All items will be arranged on tables provided by FEA at FIU.
- I. All Chapter Displays will need to be removed from the competition room after the session.

Judging and Scoring

- A. The judges' decision is final.
- B. Competitors agree to be bound by the FEA General Competition Rules.
- C. The entry will be scored using the Chapter Display Competition rubric.

How to Enter

- A. This is a chapter competition. Only one (1) entry per chapter will be accepted.
- B. All entries for individual and/or chapter competitions must be submitted by the chapter's sponsoring teacher via the Online Competition Entry Form by 5:00 pm, on Friday, November 1, 2024.
- C. Entries submitted by email will not be accepted.
